

Wolfson Welcomes the World

Study at Cambridge

Wolfson welcomes returning learners from all over the world to our community of mature (21+) undergraduates and postgraduates. We offer every student the opportunity to fulfil their potential, with financial and pastoral support and excellent academic mentoring.

- Wolfson is egalitarian and friendly, with a diverse body of students all in pursuit of excellence and driven by the desire to transform society for the good of all.
- We have over 400 rooms of onsite accommodation in blocks, shared houses and family flats, with prices below the Cambridge University average.
- Our library is open 24/7 and food and drink is permitted inside. The dedicated library staff and Tutors will help ensure you build the skills necessary to succeed.
- With beautiful gardens on a ten-acre site, Wolfson is located in a peaceful part of Cambridge just a short walk or cycle from all major University sites.

